Thank you for your interest in bisexuality, bisexual people and bisexual issues!

The Bisexual Resource Center (BRC) is a non-profit educational organization which provides resources on bisexuality. BRC provides educational services and materials, including:

- Telephone information and referral services for information and resources on bisexuality, and to support groups and services for bisexuals and their families and friends.
- Publish the International Directory of Bisexual Groups to facilitate contact with and between organizations which specifically support bisexuals. (See order form on opposite side.)
- Publish information about bisexuality and sexual orientation. (See order form on opposite side.)
- Maintain the Bisexual Archives of newsletters, articles, books, magazines, and tapes of radio and video programs on bisexuality, for scholarly research.
- Bisexual speakers and contacts for speaking engagements and consulting with student groups, community organizations, corporations, professional organizations, etc.
- Contacts for interviews and articles for magazines, newspapers, radio and television shows, documentaries, etc.
- Sponsor conferences and retreats on bisexuality.
- Consult with researchers on bisexuality, sexual identity, AIDS, and other issues related to bisexuality.
- Consult with and sponsor organizations writing grants to provide education and services related to bisexuality.

Most of our work is supported by individual donations. Please make a tax-deductible contribution so that more services and updated literature are available.

To receive items, fill out the order form and return it with your payment to our post office address. Please send U.S. currency only. All prices are postpaid (we pay shipping.) Please allow time for delivery, as we are an all-volunteer organization. For bulk orders, contact our office by phone or by mail. The International Directory of Bisexual Groups is updated twice each year. We will send you the current edition when we get your order.

Sincerely,

BRC ORDER FORM (1993/12/24)
